

Caitlin Dugas is a graduate of NMSU with a Bachelors degree in History. She also attended Willamette University for Japan Studies and History. Caitlin has been to China, Hong Kong, and Japan-- the rest of the world is on her bucket list! She lived and worked in China for a year. Caitlin is the Incoming Exchange Student Advisor, which means she gets to take care of all the non-degree seeking international students on campus. She also runs the front desk in the Office of Education Abroad. Finally, she is the faculty advisor of the Study Abroad Ambassadors Club.